“ My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to Marie Dailey, Rere, Lori, Bob Jr, Ariel & Monique, and all the loved ones Bob Daiey touched. "Bob!" as Mrs. Dailey called him, was the love of her life. I was blessed to meet Mr. Dailey and witness the tip of his hat, smile, and quiet strength and wisdom. Bob"Pop" was the glue of the Dailey family, but his legacy of love and family is so strong, it will never be broken, and will go on. I spoke to Marie and I could see Bob, smiling at birth of first great grand child, and he will be smiling all of the great events coming into his family's lives. Marie and Bob lives, was a not a fairy tale, it was real, funny, family,a love story. I was privileged to see God fearing family, and Mr. Dailey as the father of it all. May God comfort the family in this time of great sorrow. Love you Mrs. Dailey. Renee Seabrook-Hart- Bowe School

“ Marie, RiRi, Bob, Lori. We are so sorry for you and you're all in our prayers. Truly Bob was one of the "Good Guys" of our neighborhood and will be remembered exactly that way. I remember the best dancer ever on the Wilson Line going to Riverview Beach Park where he drew crowds with his distinct Jitter big. The life of the party at so many parties. A loving husband, Father, Grandfather, and Great Grand. A great friend. Will always have fond memories of Bobby Daily! Margie & Allie Scherneck
