“ Best memory I ever had of Bobby was Christmas tree shopping with our friend Mikey B and my youngest son. Coldest day ever, Bobby brings the hand saw and we head to nj we looked all around for the perfect tree, "An there it was! " Long story short, Mikey was freezing so he wanted to sit in the jeep and get warm as Bobby and I cut this tree down and pulled it from the deep woods Now it's up to Mikey to help Bobby get it on the roof of the jeep. With Mikey on the roof I thought it was gonna be a go. Then out comes this little old lady she wore the cutest pink padded coat. She was trying to help Bobby and Mikey get this large tree on the roof as me and my son watched from inside the jeep. "Then Out of no where Mikey dropped the tree on the little old lady. I couldn't help myself I cried with laughter so hard. Bobby yelling at Mikey, Omg! At the end of all that nice little old lady asked me if my two boys could have a taffy? Mikey yells yea I want one Dane! Bobby and I never stopped laughing about that day. What a great day! what a memory that was one I will always tell.. Thanks Bob for all the the memories. And thank you also Mikey B. May you RIP my friends you may be gone but will never be forgotten💔💔💔
