“ Steve was a funny man that could always get a smile & a laugh from me. I remember the joy & pride he displayed when his first grandchild joined his loving family. He was a good man, a kind man who set a good example for his whole family on how you should treat one another. I always felt a sense of comfort around him & enjoyed the privilege of knowing him. My heart goes out to each & everyone in his family. I pray for the Grace of God to bring strength & peace to Barb & the entire family to get through this difficult time. Keep all the fond memories close to your hearts & know that he will always live within each and everyone of you. God bless! Rest In Peace Steve.

*With sincere sympathy,
John Hays*
