“ Tom was our dear neighbor for 45 years. He always shared his tomatoes he grew in his garden. Our block was full of little screaming girls. He would say why do they scream. Our youngest daughter was a red head. He loved it so much so he had a lock of her hair. If you find it you'll know where it came from. We watched Tom take care of his loving wife Jean and had a great respect for him. Our block will miss another one of our old time neighbors. Rest in Peace Tom "God Be With Your Loving Family" Sincere Sympathy Max, Karen and Family
