I still pass your old street and tears well up when I think of you and all the time we spent together. I read your letter every once in a while. I look at your picture. I miss your smile. I miss your heart. I miss your lips. I miss most of all you love. Just to let you know I'm still thinking of you. Always will. I miss you and love you.*

“ Hello Beautiful. Sorry I'm a bit late. I broke my phone at the doctor's office yesterday, but Happy Easter. I remember you telling me how much you love decorating the eggs the day before. It reminded me of you. Like everything does. It still hurts to know that this is the only outlet I have to talk to you. I guess I'll have to make due. But with the news I got today I may be joining you sooner than expected if nothing works to help me. I'm hopeful. I wish you were here to talk to. You could always make me feel better. I have to go. Still have to work for now Haha. Sleep tight Beautiful.

It's going to be alright. Do what makes you feel at least a little piece inside. Remember... No one can take Tracy away. She is everywhere and anywhere you are and these feelings of love will always be felt through mom and daughter. You wanna talk to Aunt Tracy now you can anywhere anytime and no one can tell you how to miss Aunt Tracy or love her or remember her ever. Aunt Tracy feels these words I am sure about that. 💕👍💕🌸😭

“ ✨ Hey Aunt Tracy, dang do I miss you. I was thinking about some of the memories we all as a family share together. I am happy you liked your balloons or maybe they are still on their way to your vacation spot. I am happy you are apart of this family. I remember when you were blasting mommy's radio one day, you were singing to Q102 "All my life" by Kaci and JoJo. You were singing and you got near my ear and started singing louder and holding the melody for an annoying amount of time trying to make me laugh. 😂 Though I am sad I know we FAM always have the laughter, the silliness, the holidays and birthday's, the gossip and joy you brought to my life and everyone you met. I love you. Thanks for listening Aunt Tracy, goodnight. ✨

Mom's Little Angel...

Barbara Baals - July 07, 2016 at 03:50 AM

“ Tracy

I remember You as a Shy little girl, but fondly remember You as a Fiesty Young Woman. I remember our last visit with a Smile, You and PJ came to my house and You told me that I was just a old aunt and I started to laugh because the expression on your face was Priceless and I told You that you were cute when your mad and we both laughed and you gave a little wave.

I will remember You and that Visit.

Please Watch Over Your Mom & Family.

Rest In Peace & Love

“ It is incredibly difficult for me to say how I feel. For a very long time you we're a very big part of my life. I thought about you so much. And now even more. I feel so heart broken that I didn't know something had happen to you. That I couldn't see you or say goodbye. But for the longest time we loved one another and then we became good friends. And now I feel like there is a piece of me missing somewhere that I can put my finger on. You will always remain with me in my heart. And I will always cherish the memories we shared together over the year. Goodbye Love...

“ Aunt Tracy, you have your wings now. A butterfly, becoming every shade of the rainbow you always loved the most. Soaring through a valley of your favorite flowers. Where the weather is always perfect, especially the sun shining forever and ever in the sky. Your stubborn attitude never left you and propels your wings now over the tallest trees blooming full of brightly colored Autumn leaves. No space where you are is left without a touch of color. You truly now have taken form, the little Angel mommy always thought of you as being. You earned yourself the key to the golden gates. You always fought so hard and now you have this beautiful journey of rest. Still, these pages filled with your handwriting and drawings go along with all the memories and the imprint you left on my life and many others. I will miss you. 💖 You aren't alone though. You greet familiar faces of other family members as well as touch the lives of other spirits flowing free and flying just like you on your path. Enjoy your long journey and beautiful rest. Through the roller coaster of chaos that is this life I am happy you were my aunt. I love you, no matter what, forever and always, love Angelina. 🌈

“ Tracy,
*My love you will definitely be missed.
Your friendship was and forever will be cherished.
Your realness was so thorough, it's going to be hard to find that identical realness in others.
Lucky number seven says he loves you.
Damaris and Elisabet wrote on a ballon to you and both say that they Love you.
As for me, save us a spot in paradise.
