“ Bill was a beautiful light in the world , his laughter and heart of Gold will be missed . He loved his family ,his summers off and his neighborhood .I had the pleasure of his company every Friday , he would stop in McDaniels Pub and have a couple of Miller Highlife ( the champagne of beers ) . He always had the best jokes and would always make me smile , when he walked in the door !! Bill will always be remembered in my heart and my prayers xoxo my condolences to his family
