“ I met Wil 25 years ago. Out side my hair salon. He worked at a store next to mine. My Bulldog got out of the car and ran right to Wil. Jumping on him licking him He laugh I want him! I said you can have him .lol thats Thats how we met. It was instance friend ship ever since. Going to amusement parks. Bars closing the Cabana at 3am.omg Going the Phiilies Games. I loved the Cubs. So we would go I would wear my Cubs shirt. Wil would say No No you have to take it off you cant go in! Lol So I wore a Phiilies hat. We would drink sing. His favorite Frank Sanatra song. It Had To Be You! He gave me post cards from a dozen or more states he went on the road in the West coast. So awesome! He was always so thoughtful. Wore is heart on his slebe!❤️ You are an awesome one of a kind guy William. You will be missed so much!!

“ What a find I have known Will since 2016, we became instant friends, he would do anything to make things easier for me. . . just the way he was.

Wil, you may not have been any better for knowing me . . . However I am better for knowing you!

God Bless see you in the after when I get there, have one waiting.

RIP Brother

“ I used to date Wil when we were in high school. He was such a great guy and his smile just made things better. As teens often do, we grew apart. We've kept in touch sporadically but upon hearing of his passing, I am truly heartbroken. I am so sorry that I never made more of an effort to see him more often. He will truly be missed. My condolences to Wil's entire family. Rest peacefully Wil.

“ All my love and heartbreak for Wils family and friends. One thing I was always certain of was Wils pure love for those he held dear. I remember it each and every day how he just came up to me and said..."I gotta go, but you're the most beautiful woman in there..and poof he was gone. Must have been destiny because just a month later I walked into his place with his friend and there he was, the stranger with the Red hat. From that moment on, good, bad, and in between there was no doubt this man would change my life forever. I was never more lucky to be loved by Wil, my daughter Danni and the whole senior class that year just adored how Wils only goal was to make someone smile. Even when he was stubborn as a mule, no one could doubt just how much he loved us, loved life and most of all the love he had for his family. So honored that Wil forever remain one of the greatest chapters in my story.

"Where'd you wanna go?

How much you wanna risk?

I'm not lookin' for somebody

With some superhuman gifts

Some superhero

Some fairy-tale bliss

Just something I can turn to

Somebody I can kiss

I want something just like this"..Our song...and yes truly my fairy tale bliss. ❤️

“ Mega, I remember us all having wings for Christmas dinner at my house for the Eagles game. Just one of the many happy memories of you Will. We loved you like one of our own kids. You were a caring person and a loyal friend to all of us that knew you. Rest easy my other son, you will be missed terribly. ❤️
