“ I was sorry to hear of Booty's passing and offer my sincere and heartfelt sympathies to the entire O'Meara family. I knew the O'Mearas and Booty and his brother Greg growing up in South Philly along with the Gallaghers who owned the pharmacy across from St. Monica's. Both families were great friends of my mother, Mary Agnes Reardon Sader who was widowed early when my dad, Steve Sader, died at age 29 from Hodgkin's. I remember many fun times with the the O'Mera boys and Joe and Garret Gallagher while growing up in the city.

Booty was a good man who lived a life in full and will be missed by the many friends he made during his life. God bless him and may he enjoy the blessing of eternal life.

“ Booty was one of the great ones and will be sorely missed. He never forgot a face or a story and would tell you the way it was. Most honest, loyal, caring and kindest person that I had the pleasure to call friend. There will never be another like him. The world is a lot sadder without Booty and heaven gained a star! He was truly one in a million and the best of the best! Until we meet again Bootman - continue to watch over us from above.

“ Met Booty when we were going to Neumann. To say He was an Original would be an under statement. We got into lot's mischief there. Run into Him many times and places throughout my life, always good for a story. A good one.
