“ My deepest condolences to Drew, Sharon and Michelle on the passing of their beloved Mom. The person all of my life that even though she was married to my mom's cousin, Bud, I called my Aunt. She was such a sweet, kind lady. I remember always going to family gatherings at her and Uncle Bud's house on Tasker Street. We had many good times there. I had the pleasure of visiting her many times during the past year. We spent that time watching movies and reminiscing about the "good old days." My sister and I were fortunate to visit her and celebrate her birthday. We enjoyed spending that day with her. She will surely be missed by her friends and loving family. Drew, Sharon and Michelle my thoughts are with you during this sorrowful time. I know that your Dad, Uncle Bud was waiting for her at The Pearly Gates. She will always be forever in our hearts.

“ Sharon, Michelle, Drew,
My heart aches to hear of your Mom’s passing. Mrs. Rand was a second Mom to me growing up. Always smiling, always ready to provide good advice, and always prepared with a funny story. Even though we moved on and out of our hometown, the girl from Morris Street will never forget the Rand’s from Tasker Street. Rest In Peace Mrs. Rand, I know Heaven gained another angel.

*With Deepest Sympathy,
Andrea Ferraiolo*

“ Hi Michelle my heart aches for you. You and I were talking in the hallway about your mom before they sent us home from work. I truly was saddened when I saw this news. You and your family have my deepest condolences and you are still in my prayers. I am truly sorry I didn't get to meet her but I feel like I did through your sharing your funny stories. God bless you and I will talk to you soon. Rest in peace Ms. Rand. 😊
